

Online written exams – Information for students

As per Rector Decree n. 1141 – 17.04.2020 pertaining to the extraordinary procedure for online written exams due to Covid-19 medical emergency, the student agrees to:

- take the exam remotely (online) following the instruction on the Rector Decree;
- not to use computer instruments or different tools than those planned for the exam;
- personally take the exam with no external help from people or textbooks, also online, used as support during the test;
- follow what provided for by the current “Carta dei diritti e dei doveri delle studentesse e degli studenti” (Charter of Student Right and Responsibilities) art. 17: “Students are compelled to judiciously carry out the exam, tangibly demonstrating their personal integrity and intellectual uprightness”.

Students are also aware that lack of respect for the above-mentioned rules entails the cancellation of the exam as well as penal sanctions and disciplinary actions and that Sapienza University will save their test according to the procedures established by law.
